gh not disposed to favor or recommend Patent s in general, through distrust of their ingredients [illegible] I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man [illegible] testify to the benefits he believes himself to have [illegible] from any simple preparation, in the hope that he [illegible] contribute to the benefit of others. is the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German [Bitt]ers, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, [I] was prejudiced against them for many years, [under the] impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic [mixture]. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, [for] the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and [encou]ragement to try them, when suffering from great [and] continued debility. The use of three bottles of [these Bit]ters, at the beginning of the present year, was [followed] by evident relief and restoration to a degree of [bodily an]d mental vigor which I had not felt for six months [before, an]d had almost despaired of regaining. I, therefore, [thank] God and my friend for directing me to the use [of them].

J. NEWTON BROWN

[PHILAD]ELPHIA, June 23 1861

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

[The]re many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, [put u]p in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest [whisky or] common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per [gallon, the] taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed. [This class] of Bitters has caused, and will continue to [cause, as] long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death [of the dru]nkard. By their use the system is kept continually [under] the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst [kind, the d]esire for Liquor is created and kept up, and [the result] is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's [life and de]ath.

[For those] who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, [we publish] the following receipt. Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three [Quarts] of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and [the result will] be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal [virtues and] true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters [in the m]arket, and will cost much less. You will [have all the] virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection [with a] good article of Liquor, at a much less price [than these] inferior preparations will cost you.

TTENTION, SOLDIERS!

THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS!

[We call] the attention of all having relations or friends [in the army] to the fact that HOOFLAND'S German Bitters [will cure n]ine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, [published a]lmost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of [the sick, it] will be noticed that a very large proportion are [suffering fr]om debility. Every case of that kind can be [readily cur]ed by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily [removed]. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these [Bitters were] freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of [lives might] be saved that otherwise will be lost.

[We call p]articular attention to the following remarkable [and au]thenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, [whose life, t]o use his own language, "has been saved by [the Bitters:]"

PHILADELPHIA, August 23 1862.

[Mess. Jo]nes & Evans.—Well gentlemen your Hoofland's [German] Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake [in this]. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended and who were [fully cogniz]ant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, [and have be]en for the last four years, a member of Sherman's [celeb]rated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr Frederick [Steinbron], of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.

JOHN H MOORES, Chairman

Salem, Dec 4th 1863.

The Prospect of Peace

The recent rumors of dissatisfaction with the action of the rebel Government on the part of many at the South, and of suggestions for compromise, have encouraged in some quarters a belief that the end of the war is near at hand. The peace men who follow the lead of Fernando Wood, are clamorous for the adoption of measures, like those proposed by him in Congress, while many others seem to imagine that some arrangement is likely to be made at an early day, which will make further conflict unnecessary. We confess that we are unable as yet to see any tokens of such probable conclusions. The cry for peace on any terms, save unconditional surrender to the Government, will find no response among the loyal masses of the people. In the beginning, they desired no contest, and were unprepared for it, but now they are determined to fight the quarrel out, so that it shall never again be revived. The South, which was eager for the conflict, and had made itself ready for war, now whines about the severity and injustice of the national authorities in striving to quell the rebellion, and to bring it into subjection. We have no doubt that the rebels have had enough of fighting; the poor whites, who have no interest in slavery, and severely feel the burdens of the war, are anxious for peace, even though it involves a return to the Union; some of the slave holders, who love their country better than they do the "peculiar institution," will not refuse again to be loyal to the land of their birth, but the great majority, who have risked their all upon the issue, though anxiously and eagerly looking for some turn of events which they hope may give to them recognition and peace, are stubbornly resolved to fight to the last rather than to submit to Federal rule, and while this is so, and they control the counsels and the plans of the slave holders' Confederacy of treason, the Government and the loyal people of the Union, turning aside neither to the right nor to the left—never pausing to listen to faithless propositions made for the deceptive purpose of gaining time—must prosecute the war with continued and increasing vigor, till the rebellion is beaten utterly and forever, and its unholy and mischievous causes are swept out of existence. When these things are done, there will be firm, prosperous and enduring peace—till then, all arrangements will be counterfeit—the vain and delusive covering of plague spots not healed, but likely at any time to break out with new and more terrible violence and wrath.

Exchange of Prisoners.—By the dispatches published this morning, it will be seen that there is a prospect that some arrangement will be made, by which Union prisoners will be saved from the infamous treatment which of late they have received at Richmond. Nothing more decidedly marks the comparative civilization of the two sections of this land than the course pursued by each towards captives. At the North they have been treated like men, being only restrained of liberty till exchanged—clothing and food have been generously furnished—in sickness and when wounded, they have received care and the best medical attendance. At the South, no barbarity was too cruel to inflict upon brave men whose only offence was their fidelity to their country. They have been robbed, starved, beaten and murdered. The policy which has been adopted seems to spring from the ferocious hatred which results from infernal and devilish despair. Humanity shudders, as it contemplates the intense and unutterable anguish and agony which our patriotic brethren have been compelled to endure in the prisons at Richmond, where they have been literally starved to death by hundreds, while rebel prisoners in Northern cities have been drawing the same rations and clothing as their guards. We trust this is not to be so any longer, but that some means of relief will be found for the incarnate demons who play with Northern lives will be made to suffer or atone for their atrocious and inhuman acts of cruelty.

New Territory.—A memorial was introduced in the Idaho Legislature, on the 15th inst praying for the division of the Territory of Idaho, and the erection of the eastern portion thereof into a new Territory, to be called Jefferson Territory.

Heavy Freight.—The Industry brought up three very large safes, one immense bell, and one 24 pound gun and carriage, among the articles of her freight.

What Drink did for a Fine Scholar.—A late letter from Chattanooga tells the following story:

While passing to and fro I heard a soldier talking French to a [illegible]. Meeting the learned son of Mars [illegible] Frenchman I asked him how long he had been in this country. He answered, and inquired if I were from France. When I told him from Scotland he threw himself into the attitude of one enraptured with a vision, and dropping his French he cried, while his eyes were flashing with true Highland fire:

[illegible]
When the Lowlands shall meet thee in battle array,
For a field [illegible]
And the [illegible]

I had met a [illegible] descendant of one of the noblest Scottish families, and a cousin of a living Lord. Banished to Van Diemen's Land for a [illegible] in the Irish Rebellion, a soldier in Mexico with Scott, in Utah with Johnston, and in the armies of the Union since its first [illegible], he has seen much of the world and of men. Of a noble mein, a fine address and a wealth of enthusiasm, he might have been an orator or an actor. Thoroughly drilled in the British service, an adept in long, short and broad sword exercise, and a gentleman by nature and education, he might have been an officer high in command. But what makes him what he is—the half drunk, poverty cursed, but entertaining genius that I found him? The "wee drappie." He begs for a dime to get a drink, when he might have commanded a brigade. He is a drunkard when he might have been a man. As I looked upon his splendid head, I thought of a [illegible] wife, with a broken heart, and a family of children precocious in vice and growing up into accomplished scoundrels. Ah! curse o' Scotland and the world. Consumer of genius and love! Fountain of error and shame, of death and of hell!

Against Negro Equality.—As Democrats profess great fear of negro equality, one Major Platt, of Maryland, has drawn up a bill entitled "An Act to amend the Act entitled 'The Act of God'" which he intends presenting to the Legislature of that State. It reads as follows:

Whereas, Information having been given this honorable body by afflicted and frightened citizens that there is great danger among Copperheads, Democrats, peace men, and secession sympathizers of amalgamation with persons of African descent, said Copperheads, peace men and secesh having become so demoralized, and said persons of African descent having become so improved in manners and morals that it is extremely difficult to distinguish one from the other, and great danger that they will rush into each other's embrace; and

Whereas, We consider it our duty to protect by law all classes of society;

Therefore, be it enacted, That if any person or persons of African descent shall hang about [illegible] groceries, coffee houses or other places of public resort where constitutional laws may be imbibed and talk about the habeas corpus, free speech or personal liberty, thereby imitating said Copperheads, peace men and secesh, such person of African descent so offending shall, upon conviction thereof, be condemned to associate with Vallandigham, Burr, and the Woods, and be considered no better than they are.

Be it enacted, That if any wench of African descent shall so far forget herself as to receive the attentions and associate with a Copperhead or peace Democrat, or secesh, such wench so offending shall, upon conviction thereof, be condemned to marry said Copperhead or peace Democrat, or secesh, without benefit of divorce.

Be it enacted, That if any person or persons of African descent shall be heard to say that slavery is of Divine origin, a blessed institution and highly advantageous to the slave in a moral and intellectual point of view, thereby imitating the wicked stupidity of said Copperheads, peace Democrats and secesh, such person or persons of African descent so offending shall, upon conviction thereof, be condemned to subscribe to, pay for and read the National Intelligencer, and may God Almighty have mercy on his or their souls.

Rate of Interest in Virginia City.—A friend of ours who has no bank account, had occasion to use a few hundred dollars yesterday, to pay some small bills. He applied to a money lender, and desired to know his terms for a thirty day loan upon a collateral of a well known mining stock in double the amount of the sum required. The security was satisfactory, but the rate of interest was not. Ten per cent for fifteen days was the lowest Shylock could take, as "money was high." Our friend positively assured the vender of cash that he would see him in a place too sultry to be salubrious, and, furthermore, that his creditors might run after him until they were barefoot before he would raise money to pay their bills upon such terms. This reminds us of another gentleman who a few weeks ago, borrowed $100 for a year at five per cent a month, the lender taking out the interest beforehand. The borrower, of course, only received $40, and after some reflection, informed the lender that if he had borrowed the same sum for two years, under the same conditions, he would not have received a cent, but on the contrary, would have owed the broker just $20, all of which was very true.—Virginia Union.

Weddings.—These interesting events have been thus classified:

A "honey wedding" is when you start in wedded life. A "wooden wedding" is the tenth anniversary, when five little ones make everything look wooden—to some folks. A "silver wedding" comes on the 25th anniversary, when the old man's pile begins to swell, and his hair is growing silvery. A "golden wedding" comes on the 50th anniversary of the match, when riches become solid gold, and the golden days of enjoyment are just. A "diamond wedding" must come on the 75th anniversary, for no one runs up to the one hundredth in this climate. [illegible] sparkling—in the future and that is about the last of it, on earth.

Greenbacks.—Judge Davis, of New York, in an opinion relating to greenbacks as legal tender, made the following remarks:

These notes are issued on the faith and credit of the whole Union, the property of which, and of all its citizens, is pledged for their ultimate redemption; and if the metals be made a tender, why may not notes equally be made a legal tender in payment of all debts, if the exigencies of the Government should require it to be done and Congress in its wisdom, should think such necessity existed?

Novel Prayer.—A young lady, at Port Royal describes some of the negro prayer meetings there. The letter says:

"Last night an old brother prayed for young missus, who left her habitation up North to come down and teach us, and when her labors is ended [illegible] and he has [illegible] hold in the Lord and [illegible] leave go til she get clar into de City ob Zion."

Big Boat.—Messrs. L[illegible] & Co are building a boat at this place for shipping lumber to Umatilla and Wallula. It is now about completed, and we understand that Mr. Atwood will start her "on her way rejoicing" in a short time. The boat is about 70 feet long by 12 wide.—Golden Age.

Lieut B F White, of Captain Kelley's Company, has been appointed Adjutant of 1st Oregon Cavalry, instead of Lieut. West, as we before stated.

The enemy's movements so far as known seem to indicate a raid on the railroad [illegible] probably upon the counties of Botetourt [illegible] and Augusta.

Washington, Dec 16.—Senator Wilson's amendment to the Conscription bill offered in the Senate [illegible] exempts the following persons: Those [illegible] and physically unfit; the Vice President of the United States; the Judges of various courts in the United States; the heads of various executive departments of the United States; Governors of States; the only son liable to military duty of a widow wholly dependent on his labor for support, and in case there are several sons and all are drafted, such parent or parents may say which son shall be exempted; the only brother of orphan children under twelve years of age wholly dependent on his labor for support; when among several sons two have been permanently disabled or died in military service the residue shall be exempt; any person [illegible]. The distinction in classes is abolished. Any person enrolled who shall procure an acceptable substitute shall be exempted.

The probabilities are decidedly that Congress will repeal the $300 clause of the enrollment act. The Military Committee of the Senate are believed to be in favor of doing so and it is not unlikely they will attach a section to that effect to the amendatory bill introduced by Senator Wilson.

Resolution was adopted in the House to day instructing the Committee on Roads and Canals to inquire into the expediency of constructing or enlarging the Northern Canals. It may be necessary to connect the Hudson and Mississippi with the Great Lakes.

New York, Dec 17.—Minatitlan dates to the 19th November state that that place is closely besieged by the French. All supplies from the interior were cut off and the people were suffering from want of provisions. A French gunboat was also guarding the town besides the number of French Egyptian troops. The natives were very bitter against the French [illegible] and hope for intervention by the United States.

The Times' special from Washington says that Gen Buford died at Washington last night of typhoid and dysentery.

The following is a special despatch to the Times, dated Washington, December 16th:

An effort is being made to give Gen. Butler full authority to negotiate an exchange of our prisoners now languishing in Richmond. It is understood here that he has expressed a willingness to undertake it and there is confidence in his ability to effect it. Moreover, it is understood that he will be acceptable to the Richmond authorities as negotiator and they will be disposed to treat on the basis of considering all our captured negroes—such as are not claimed as slaves by owners—on the same footing as white soldiers.

A demand was made to day upon the State Department to claim the surrender of the pirates who captured the Chesapeake, from the Nova Scotian authorities under the Extradition Treaty. Affidavits to back the claim were received this afternoon.

Washington, Dec 17.—A dispatch from headquarters of the United States forces in Western Virginia says that a detachment of the 20th Pennsylvania Infantry destroyed the foundry at Edenburg, Shenandoah Valley. The rebels had been using the foundry for the preparation of iron to be sent to Richmond for the construction of gunboats.

A portion of our troops in Gen. Sullivan's column had a severe skirmish yesterday near Strasburg, in which 40 rebels were captured.

On Monday night 90 of Mosby's guerrillas made a descent on our picket lines and outside defenses south of the Potomac, but without effecting any serious damage.

It is reported at the Navy Yard that the rebels a few days since opened with field pieces on our gunboats at the mouth of the Rappahannock. Our gunboats after firing a few shots in return hauled off and [illegible]

Information has been received that Gen. Butler's order for registration is working wonders in reclaiming to their allegiance to the Government the sympathizers with rebellion. Its operation began on Saturday at Norfolk, when a number of hitherto noted opponents of Government came voluntarily and took the oath of allegiance. On Monday the number of applications for certificates of loyalty was so great they could not be accommodated.

Steamer Oregon Ashore.—The steamsh Oregon, which sailed near midnight befo last struck bottom off Swan Island, three far miles below the city. The steamer Julia Capt. Van Bergen, was early sent to her as sistance, took off part of her cargo, and to a time for the purpose of towing her into deep water, but the combined efforts of both en gines failed to move her. The river is fallin five or six inches a day, and is now some s feet lower than a fortnight since. We a informed that when the bark Industry passe up there was but fifteen feet in the channel while the Oregon drew fifteen and a half. I is useless for our people to deceive themselve in this matter, or expect vessels to come up t wharves inaccessible for want of sufficient wa ter on the line of travel. The river must b deepened, the steamship company put lighte draft vessels on the rout, or our people receive their goods for city consumption from rive boats, with expense of reshipment from som rival town near the deep waters of the Colum bia, which will monopolize the interior an mining trade. It was thought that the stea er would float at high water last night.

Almost a Serious Accident.—Last even ing, as a son of Judge Strong was driving his market cart home with a lot of vegetables, &c he came near being seriously crushed by the overturning of the cart upon him at the cor ner of First and Madison streets. The locali ty is not remarkable for solidity of soil, and the pedestrian along First crosses Madison upon two narrow planks raised an inch or so above the surface of the mud. When Master Strong undertook the feat of crossing these planks, at a moderate pace, the distance from the plane upon which the wheels rolled to the summit was so great and precipitous as to throw the horse, break a shaft, upset the cart, and dump the load into a soft bed of mud, with the lad underneath. He fortunately escaped with only a few pounds added to the weight of his vesture, and a little soreness but no serious bruise. The goods were re-shipped on a dray, and we hope got safe home.

Arrived.—The bark Industry, Capt Paul Corno came up yesterday morning, in tow of the steamer John H Couch. She sailed from San Francisco Dec 11th, and has experienced heavy weather the entire passage. On the 21st, a terrific gale, lasting 20 hours, thoroughly tested her admirable sea-going qualities. Arrived in the river 24th. Below is a copy of her manifest.

S & F, 10 pkgs, Hodge & Calef, 154 Smith & Davis, 165 Sherlock, 7 Order, (1 buggy), Ladd, Reed & Co 248, Ingram & Shindler, 63 John Gunter 2 S & F, 1176 K Lowenstein & Co, 44 Cohen, Lyon & Co, 129, Elfelt, Wolf & Co, 184 Harker Bros, 178, Haas Bros, 192, A Cohn & Co, St Church & Co, 2 Walter Bros, 7 E J Northrup & Co, [illegible] C L Parker, Astoria, 19 D & W 5 Milwain & Morse, P C Olney, 13, B F Smith, 50; T Savage, 1 Knapp, Burrel & Co [illegible], Capt Chas Hopkins, Q M, 160, Baum Bros, 306 W S B, 13 Ladd & Tilton 11, J G Hustler, Astoria & J Sellor, 152 J Turnbull, 1, M, 25; Miller 2; J Wilson 37 Sarier & Co, 105 Fallinge & Hatt, 126 A B Richardson 232, Charman & Warner, Oregon City, 121; B M & Co, 100 Richards & McCraken, 225, O S Savage, 36; Jacob Bros, 160; H W Corbett, 101.

"Portland Mercantile Library Association."—We are proud to know that an as sociation under the above title will ere long become a fixed fact in this community. A few gentlemen are putting the ball in motion, and although they have had opportunity thus far to see only a small proportion of our mer chants, they have already pledged $1,000, with a promise of more from some of the same parties so soon as the subject assumes a tangible shape. Two or three thousand dollars should be readily and promptly raised in furtherance of this project, and every dollar put into it is profitably invested. We need this work completed at once, and let us start it now and reap the benefits afterwards.

New Church Organ.—The bark Industry brought up an organ for the new Presbyterian Church in this city, procured below for $1,000, but which cost $1,600 to the First Presbyterian Church (Rev. Dr. Anderson's) of San Francisco, whence it was purchased. It is a fine toned instrument, measuring 8 feet front, 9 feet high, and 12 feet deep, with 8 stops and one bank of keys. We believe this is the first organ introduced into Oregon. We are informed that Capt. Corno generously brought it on his vessel without charge, which exhibits a known and noble trait in his character, when the vast measurement of the freight is considered.

Gold Dust.—A larger quantity of dust arrived on the Hunt last night than has been brought by any one boat for some time. Mr. Holland, Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express messenger, brought 150 pounds. Forty passengers came down, many of them well loaded down with dust. Two men had each more gold than they could shoulder without assistance.

Attempt at Burglary.—About 10 o'clock last evening, while Purser Foster, of the W G Hunt, was sitting quietly in a front room of his residence on Washington street, without a light, some person raised the window and was about entering, when a noise startled him and he fled, leaving his shoes behind. Mr Foster pursued but could not catch him. His object was doubtless plunder.

R & D C.—Arthur Fahie was brought before the Recorder, yesterday, on a charge of riotous and disorderly conduct, and before leaving contributed $25 toward defraying the expenses of City Government.

The Raffle for Grover & Baker Machine embroidery came off on Christmas Eve, at the Agency, satisfactory to all concerned, particularly those who drew prizes, among the most fortunate being his Honor the Mayor, he drawing the first and last prizes. At the request of several parties Mr. Pierson has agreed to raffle off a fine Cabinet Machine, on (this) New Year's Eve, at his store, and requests all parties interested to meet there between 7 and 8 o'clock this evening. Chances can be bought for $2 50 each. This is a good opportunity for some fortunate individual to secure a valuable prize for a small sum.

THERE is no other way to cure disease but by first purifying the whole system so as to create a healthy circulation.

The first medical men of the age agree with us, that no disease of any extent can be cured without using such medicines as will act directly upon the blood Why many medical men have failed to cure chronic diseases is, because the medicines used have not been such as will act beneficially on the blood

The many thousands of bottles which have been used by the public, and the many gallons and barrels supplied to the physicians, warrant us in saying that the last two years we have been more successful with our Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup in curing hopeless cases of chronic diseases than have any other remedies in the hands of physicians, or before the public.

It is now admitted that no combination known to the profession, acts so promptly upon diseases as our SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP.

OF INTEREST TO LADIES —The fashion of having embroidery on cloaks, ladies dresses and in fact garments of every description is rapidly on the increase in this country—imported, as are other fashions from Paris Fortunately for the ladies, the crisis has not caught them unprepared, and left them with no other means of ornamenting their articles of dress but the tedious and tiresome one by hand There is at least one of our popular sewing machines (Grover & Baker's) which is adapted to both sewing and embroidery and braiding Ladies can examine the ornamental and beautiful work of these machines and receive instructions in the same by calling at the agency

The President's Hymn.

In anticipation of the National Thanksgiving, the President of the National Sanitary Commission addressed the following letter to the New York press:

'NEW YORK, November 11, 1863.

Inclosed you will find a hymn written by our beloved and reverend fellow citizen, Dr. Muhlenberg, founder of St. Luke's Hospital, and writer of the immortal hymn, "I would not live alway." Will you not give it a place in your columns, and use your editorial influence to induce our people throughout the loyal States to sing it in the churches on the approaching Thanksgiving as the "President's hymn"? It has a right to that designation. It is, as a comparison of the two will prove, a metrical version of the President's proclamation, which this year, for the first time, made our "Harvest Home" a National festivity—a significant and blessed augury of that "more perfect Union" in which, with God's blessing, the war shall leave us as a people. Solicitous to have the highest authority given to the use of this National hymn, I obtained the reluctant consent of its writer (author also of the music to which it is set) to ask our Chief Magistrate's permission to style it "The President's Hymn." The Secretary of State, through whom the application was made, telegraphed me a few hours afterward the President's leave, in the decisive style which has now become so familiar to our people—"Let it be so called." May we not hope that millions of our people will, on November 26th, be found uniting in this National psalm of thanksgiving, and that "The President's Hymn" will be the household and the temple song of that solemn and joyful day? It will help to join our hearts as citizens thus to blend our voices as worshipers, and the blessings of Union, liberty and peace will sooner descend on a people that can thus unite in its praise and hosannahs.

Respectfully yours,
HENRY W. BELLOWS.

THE PRESIDENT'S HYMN.

Give thanks, all ye people, give thanks to the Lord,
Alleluias of freedom, with joyful accord;
Let the East and the West, North and South, roll along,
Sea, mountain and prairie, one thanksgiving song.
CHORUS—
Give thanks, all ye people, give thanks to the Lord,
Alleluias of freedom, with joyful accord.

For the sunshine and rainfall, enriching again
Our acres in myriads with treasures of grain;
For the earth still unloading her manifold wealth,
For the skies beaming vigor, the winds breathing health.
Give thanks etc.

For the nation's wide table, o'erflowingly spread,
Where the many have feasted, and all have been fed,
With no bondage, their God-given rights to enthrall,
But Liberty guarded by Justice for all.
Give thanks, etc.

In the realms of the anvil, the loom and the plow,
Whose the mines and the fields, to Him gratefully bow;
His the flocks and the herds; sing ye hillsides and vales,
On His ocean domains chant His name with the gales.
Give thanks, etc.

Of commerce and traffic, ye princes, behold
Your riches from Him whose the silver and gold.
Happier children of labor, true lords of the soil,
Bless the great Master Workman, who blesseth your toil.
Give thanks, etc.

Brave men of our forces, life guard of our coasts,
To your Leader be loyal, Jehovah of Hosts,
Glow the Stripes and the Stars aye with victory bright,
Reflecting His glory: He crowneth the right.
Give thanks, etc.

Nor shall ye through our borders, ye stricken of heart,
Only wailing your dead, in the joy have no part;
God's solace be yours, and for you there shall flow
All that honor and sympathy's gifts can bestow.
Give thanks, etc.

In the domes of Messiah, ye worshiping throngs,
Solemn litanies mingle with jubilant songs,
The Ruler of Nations beseeching to spare,
And our empire still keep the elect of His care,
Give thanks, etc.

Our guilt and transgressions remember no more;
Peace, Lord! righteous peace, of Thy gift we implore,
And the banner of Union, restored by Thy hand,
Be the banner of freedom o'er all in the land.
And the Banner of Union, etc.
Give thanks, etc.

HISTORY OF A NECKLACE.—The "National Quarterly" gives us the following stirring history of phonographic short hand:

"The proceedings of the American Congress were very imperfectly reported before the time of Mr. Joseph Gales, senior, the father of the late Mr. Gales of the National Intelligencer. He was the first who made a report of the Congressional debates which appeared in the paper the next day. This was considered a most astonishing feat at the time. His son, Joseph Gales, was also a reporter, and one of the best in his day, that the country could boast. He first became connected with the National Intelligencer as reporter in Oct., 1807; he was then just twenty one years old. He and the present M. Seaton afterwards were the proprietors of the paper. They were both the reporters and editors of the Intelligencer—one of them devoted himself to the Senate, and the other to the House of Representatives. As a general thing, they published only running reports—on special occasions, however, the speeches and proceedings were given entire. The peculiar talents of these gentlemen were duly appreciated, and they had seats of honor assigned them beside the presiding officers. To these enterprising and accomplished reporters we are indebted for many of those splendid specimens of eloquence which adorn the political literature of our country. The speeches made by Webster and Hayne, during their celebrated intellectual combat in the United States Senate, were preserved from oblivion by Mr. Gales, whose notes, handsomely bound, and enriched by Mr. Webster's annotations, are kept as a precious momento in the family library. The following anecdote may perhaps, be read with some interest in this connection:

The day Mr. Webster made his reply to the attack of Mr. Hayne, of South Carolina, Joseph Gales met him as he was going to the Capitol, and inquired how long he intended to speak. "About half an hour," was the reply. The editor's duties at that time were pressing, but he ventured to take so much time from them. Mr. Webster, however, directly after was joined by Judge Story, who said that he thought the time had come for Mr. Webster to give the country his views on the constitution. To this proposition the senator assented. Mr. Gales took up his pencil, unawares of this new arrangement, and alike unconscious of the lapse of time under the enchantment of the orator, he continued to write until the close of the speech. But when he came to look at the notes, the magnitude of the task it would be to write them out appeared so formidable, that he shrank from it as an impossibility. Soon after Mr. Webster called on Mr. Gales, and requested a report of the speech. "I have the notes," said the reporter, "but I shall never have time to write them out." This led to some remonstrance and persuasion, but the over-worked editor stood firm. At this juncture Mrs. Gales came forward, and offered to undertake the task, saying that she could decipher her husband's short-hand, as she had occasionally done so. She had heard the speech and the resistless sweep of its argument, and the gorgeous magnificence of its imagery, were yet vivid in her mind. In the course of a week Mr. Gales submitted to Mr. Webster the report of his speech, in the handwriting of his wife. Scarcely a word needed to be changed and very soon a set of diamonds, costing a thousand dollars, accompanied the thanks of the eloquent statesman. Thus was saved to literature the most memorable oration of the American senate.

THE CHARGES AGAINST ROSECRANS.—The following manly and touching extract from a private letter written by General Rosecrans to a friend in Washington will carry with it to all who read it the conviction that he has been hardly used by the Administration press, in the charges they have so loosely made against him to justify his removal from the command of the Army of the Cumberland. He writes: "As to my removal from the command of the Army of the Cumberland, I have only to say that I pray God that the country may be as well and better served by another. As for the infamous lies which are put forth through the press to blast my reputation—such as disabling mental disease, the use of opium, disobedience of orders in not advancing when ordered, in waiting for reinforcements, etc., etc.—If I thought they came from our Government, I would despair of a nation headed by such a Government. That the people will accept them, or that God will prosper their authors, I do not believe. Personally I commend myself to the just and merciful One, who knows what is the best for me."

Eight hundred thousand slaves have been run into Georgia and Alabama alone from Kentucky, Tennessee, Louisiana and Mississippi, by rebel owners, to escape the Union troops.

Cigar smoking is now strictly forbidden in Constantinople either in or out of doors, owing to the supposition that the practice has caused many fires.

Government is said to be reflecting upon the feasibility of hanging a few fraudulent contractors.

A sour temper bites ugly lines into one's face like aquafortis.

This Medicine increases the power of DIGESTION, and excites the ABSORBENTS into healthy action, by which the WATERY or CALCEROUS depositions, and all UNNATURAL ENLARGEMENTS are reduced, as well as PAIN and INFLAMMATION, and is good for MEN, WOMEN OR CHILDREN.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases,"

"INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION,"

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, BUT NONE WILL CONFESS.

THE RECORDS OF THE INSANE ASYLUMS,

And the melancholy deaths by Consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion that once affected by Organic Weakness,

Requires the Aid of Medicine, to strengthen and invigorate the system, which invariably does.

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity the [illegible] of Stomachics in the shape of poor Whisky, [illegible] compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles, and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which instead of curing only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS
and CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to [illegible] Patent Medicines in general, through [illegible] of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of [illegible] reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits [illegible] himself to have received from any simple preparation [illegible] in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I, therefore, thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1861. J. NEWTON BROWN.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt: Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medical virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters:"

PHILADELPHIA, August 23, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to life.
